Happy New Year Everyone!

To quote a recent joke, the dumbest thing I ever did was buy a 2020 planner! I'm sure we're all glad to see the back of 2020 and that none of us have so looked forward to receiving a needle or two!

I start by reminding you that January 19th is our Annual General Meeting, which will begin at 7:00 pm. We'll keep it as brief as we can and then move on to the Community Quilting portion of the evening. Bev Stevens will run a workshop to teach us how to make a quick version of Arrowhead Blocks. Please join us! There will be lots of opportunity to interact with fellow members and, for the fourth get-together/meeting in a row, there will be prizes! The usual cookies, however, will have to wait until next year (fingers crossed!).

The notice and the slate of proposed Directors, Officers and Committee Chairs are set out later in this newsletter, as well as a list of items you'll need in order to participate fully in the Community Quilting workshop.

Despite all of the difficulties of this pandemic year, our guild has weathered the storm quite well thanks to the hard work of many members of our guild, not just the marvelous members of our Tech Team, but committee chairs who figured out new ways to do things and members who stepped up to help and provide constructive suggestions.

Here's a brief outline of some of the things we've accomplished this year.

- We taught our members how to Zoom like pros.
- We held a joint summer virtual meeting with the thought-provoking Dr. Kimber.
- We ran our usual September to November meetings with great speakers and members who had to miss a meeting were thrilled to be able to watch it afterwards.
- We held our first virtual workshop, which was very much enjoyed by the participants.
- We instituted virtual sew-alongs three times a week, not only keeping our Community Quilting program going, but providing an opportunity for members to meet together socially and discuss topics ranging from great TV shows and books, politics, cooking, and, oh yes, quilting!
- We delivered 114 quilts, lots of personal toiletries and gifts, and cash donations to Nonnina's Table—thanks to everyone, for your hard work and generosity. We delivered lots of quilts to other deserving charities.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

- Member Jacintha Bennell, with the helpful suggestions of Bev Stevens and Wendy Dines, created a prototype quilt for Flags of Hope, an organization which is bringing attention to the epidemic of opioid overdose deaths in Canada. More about this in our next newsletter.
- We voted on whether or not to establish a CQA Diversity Award, founded by York Heritage Quilters Guild.
- We held our first ever December get-together.

Our Holiday Happening, proposed and organized by France Barrette and Susan Gaston, was an unqualified success. Over eighty members attended, playing virtual games and participating in virtual contests. The prizes, however, were quite real! In addition to the videos (including the wonderful Show and Show segment, which showcased members' holiday crafts) which were sent out to all members following the party, we heard Chriss Coleman's oration of a Quilter's Night Before Christmas, held a "best holiday outfit" contest, and a "why did I buy that fabric" contest, and learned about several very interesting non-traditional tools for quilting. Several of the latter will make an appearance in a later newsletter.

The best parts of the Holiday Happening, according to several emails and comments we received, however, were the several breakout sessions, in which members were able to meet in smaller groups, greeting old friends and meeting new ones. We're going to try to provide more of these opportunities at future meetings.

Thanks so much to France, Susan, Chriss Coleman, Irena Hopper, Edna Keown, Shelley Keyser, Deb Larsen, Janet Patterson, and Jane Sanders for creating and presenting such an amazing event!

This event was an example, not only of the talents of members of our guild, but of members making suggestions and helping to make our guild more fun and relevant to the needs of our members. If there's something you think we can do or some way you think we can improve our guild, let us know!

I look forward to seeing you at our January meeting. In the meantime, enjoy our New Year, and stay well!

Virtual Workshop Recap

Karen K Stone's English Paper Piecing by Machine workshop, held virtually on November 21, was well-received. Most participants finished their initial block during the class or shortly thereafter. Karen started with fabric selection and everyone had a chance to share their ideas and get feedback. She was available for consultation during the working sessions.

We are confident that the upcoming teachers will be equally impressive. Peter Byrne has experience with the format and is very well prepared.

Lines + Triangles = Squares

This workshop empowers students to take the basic shapes of patchwork to a new level. We will start by learning how to create improvisation-ally cut and pieced stripes. These “stripes” made into traditional patchwork shapes will be the basis for creating dynamic patchwork.

Benefits of Virtual Workshops

Benefits of virtual workshops are varied, including...

- ◆ No driving to class. This is especially nice when you wake up on the day of the workshop and it's blowing snow outside.
- ◆ Nothing to pack! No more wondering if you brought everything you need. No more panicking if you forgot to bring something. No more packing your sewing machine, lugging it into and out of your car and up to the studio, taking it back down, out to your car, into your house, and setting it back up. Phew. I'm tired just typing this!
- ◆ You are in your own studio space. You know where everything is. No more, what pocket did I put those scissors in? Or where is that fabric? I know I packed it.
- ◆ No packing lunch. Or packing your lunch and forgetting it on the counter at home!
- ◆ You will always have a front row view of the instructor and their work. Demos by instructors will be clear
- ◆ Instructors still offer one-on-one instruction. You can ask questions live or in the chat either publicly or privately.
- ◆ You can chat with fellow participants.
- ◆ There will be technical help during the workshop from your York Heritage Quilt Guild Tech Team. You are not alone. If you can't figure something out, we'll help!
- ◆ And my number one favourite for those mid-winter workshops: you can attend in your jammies!

Community Quilting Chair

Wendy Dines

Despite the pandemic, our members continue to demonstrate their generosity: a total of 114 quilts—baby, child, adolescent & adult--were donated to Nonnina's Table, a community based not-for-profit organization. They distributed 350 gift baskets which included turkeys and another 150 baskets in the community. In addition to the quilts, YHQQ members sent gift cards, personal care items, and cash donations. Nonnina's Table organizers were incredibly grateful. Below is an excerpt from their thank you note.

Anne and Wendy, your Quilts were beautiful and the sizes were perfect. We gave them to families with kids, seniors and newcomers. They were so happy, especially the kids.

Also thank you for your monetary and gift cards.

Please say THANK YOU to your quilt members that put in so many hours to make these beautiful quilts.

thank you!

In late November, ten large quilts were donated to Covenant House as gifts for young women who were victims of the sex traffickers. The thank you note below was received from Covenant House board director The Honourable Karen M. Weiler, C.M.,

Dear Anne and Wendy,

The coming to the close of this difficult year is a time to reflect and to express gratitude to you and your members for your generosity to the homeless and sex trafficked youth at Covenant House Toronto. I had the pleasure of personally delivering the quilts made by the York Heritage Quilters Guild to the McGill Street entrance of Covenant House this past September. Before delivering them, I could not resist pulling out the approximately ten quilts and enjoying a private quilting show. Seeing these beautifully crafted pieces that also serve a very practical purpose brought back memories of the quilts my mother and grandmother made when I was growing up. To this day, one such quilt is a treasured possession. I know that the women in Avdell House who they received your first donation of quilts in December 2019 and were told that they could keep them felt they had received a very special gift they treasured. I have no doubt that the youth who received this year's quilts feel the same way.

Equally as important, your gift shows the youth at Covenant House that you and the members of the Guild care about them and their well-being. Thank You So Much!

From our roster of recipient organizations, Women's Habitat in Etobicoke received 30 comfort and child quilts. Additionally, Sistering was the recipient of two sets of three (an adult, adolescent & child/baby quilt per set) for their holiday celebration parties.

DISPLAY & COMPETITION

What a year 2020 has been!

Holiday Happening

The Holiday Happening held virtually in December was a huge success. Everyone had loads of fun, which was our one and only goal. The breakout rooms gave us the opportunity to meet and chat with other members that, under “normal” circumstances, we may not have had the opportunity to meet. And, as a bonus, we may have learned something new. Thank you to all who helped make it happen and thank you to the many of you who sent in comments to our president and organizing committee in appreciation of the event. Your feedback has encouraged us to continue to provide a quality program for your enjoyment throughout 2021 and beyond. If you have any suggestions for future meetings or events, please let us know.

Show & Share

The Show & Share portion of most meetings is a mini quilt show for our members and by our members. Thank you to everyone who has contributed to it this year either by sending us a photo for our virtual meetings or by displaying your work at in-person meetings. During 2020, our members shared 129 quilts and other creative projects – all lovingly made by you, our members. We look forward to seeing all of your latest projects in 2021. Can we reach 150 projects this year?

Please note that there will not be a Show & Share at our AGM/CQ meeting in January. Show & Share will return in February.

Guild Challenge

The guild’s challenge, called Covid-19 Log CABIN FEVER Challenge is currently underway. Be as creative as you want and show us your version of a log cabin. Tell us a story about what 2020 has been for you. The only stipulation is that whatever log cabin-esque creation you submit, it must be finished. It can be quilted, framed, sewn, appliquéd—whatever makes your vision complete.

Members can submit entries for the Log CABIN FEVER Challenge at any point during the upcoming guild year (but no later than May 2021) by sending a picture of their submission to yhqq.zoom@gmail.com. The subject line of your email should read: Log CABIN FEVER Challenge Entry – Submission from (your name here). Entries will part of the monthly Show and Share presentation at guild meetings beginning in February and will be posted on our YHQQ Instagram account (unless you indicate to us that you wish to opt out). Of course, these instructions may change if we go back to in-person meetings. As this is a participant challenge, and not a viewer’s choice challenge, we will draw 5 winners from the pool of participants in May 2021—each will receive $50.

Covid-19 Log CABIN FEVER Challenge

Since the onset of the Covid-19 global pandemic, we've all been asked to stay in our homes and minimize social interactions. Our world seems to have been put on pause while we all practice good hand hygiene and safe social distancing. Some say that quilters have been preparing for an experience like this since the first needle was threaded. But seeing the same four walls, day in and day out, hasn't been easy. To help break this cabin fever and celebrate our contributions to keeping each other safe, let's design our own version of a log cabin block. BEAT THAT CABIN FEVER!

What is a log cabin pattern?

Traditionally, a log cabin begins with a centre square and sewing strips in sequence around the sides of the square. It is arranged in a repeated single block pattern that can be made of light and dark fabrics which represent the walls of a log cabin and the centre square represents the hearth or heart of the home.

The blocks to be arranged in multiple ways and create different repeats or designs. The possibilities are endless!

BLOCK ASSEMBLY DIAGRAM

Be as creative as you want and show us your own version of a log cabin. We want your creation to tell us a story: what has 2020 been like for you. The only stipulation is that that it is a finished product. Quilted, framed, sewn, appliquéd – whichever makes your vision complete.

Size

As small as a 2"x 2" block or as big as a king size bed – the size is up to you!

Material

Go stash diving. Use that piece of fabric that's been sitting in your stash from your first visit to a fabric store. Use anything that fits your vision!

Entry Submission & Due Date

Prizes will be drawn in May, but you can submit entries for the Log Cabin Fever Challenge at any point during the upcoming guild year. Send us a picture of your submission to yhqq.zoom@gmail.com. The subject line of your email should read: Log Cabin Fever Entry – Submission from (your name here). Entries will also be posted on our YHQQ Instagram account, unless you opt out. Of course, submission instructions may change if we go back to in-person meetings.

Prizes

As this is a participant challenge and not a viewer's choice challenge, in May 2021 we will draw five winners from the pool of participants. Each will receive $50.

2021 TrendTex Challenge: Friendship

TrendTex Fabrics is once again generously donating beautiful fabrics for CQA/ACC's 33rd annual wall quilt challenge with the theme Friendship. Get in on the fun of this long-lasting tradition. What will your quilt look like?

Your design may be modern or traditional and any combination of machine and/or hand piecing, appliqué or quilting is acceptable. Embellishments are at the quilter's discretion. All five of the fabrics in the kit shown above must be clearly visible on the front of your wall quilt and you may add three additional fabrics of your own choosing. Quilts will be judged on general appearance, design, workmanship, and the use of the challenge fabric.

To join the challenge, request the kit (five TrendTex fabrics cut into fat quarters) using the online order form and paying for it using the shopping cart. If you prefer to mail in your form with payment, check the CQA/ACC website for details.

Until January 1, 2021, there is a limit of one kit per person; additional kits may be purchased after that date, if available.

All wall quilts will become the property of CQA/ACC and be displayed at Quilt Canada 2021 in June. As a gesture of thanks, the TrendTex award-winning wall quilt will be given to TrendTex Fabrics, Inc. and all others will be sold at our popular silent auction.

The TrendTex Challenge Entry Form is available online. Get your entry in by April 5, 2021 in order to be eligible for judging. If you wish to donate a quilt for the silent auction fundraiser without having it judged it must be received by May 27, 2021. We welcome all wall quilts and look forward to seeing and displaying your challenges in Toronto. Download the complete 2021 TrendTex Challenge Rules.

Jelly Roll Quilts by Pam & Nicky Lintott

Reviewed by Chrystle S

At the beginning of our social distancing period I decided to have a good look at my personal library because I thought I would have oodles of time for quilting. I found Jelly Roll Quilts by Pam and Nicky Lintott. It was first published by David & Charles Book in 2008 and is also in our YHQ library.

I have multiple jelly rolls and I can never quite decide what I want to do with them. In the first line of the book they ask, "...which looks so beautiful you don't like to unroll it?"

That spoke to me. This book is going to entice me to unroll them and give one or two of their projects a try.

Jelly Roll Quilts provides information on getting started along with other relevant information and has 17 projects all starting with the jelly roll. They explain that you can make your own jelly roll, it does not need to be a purchased one. The two projects I have my eye on only require the jelly roll and a bit of other fabric for border and binding. There are also a couple of projects that use the jelly roll for colour and add background fabric of varying amounts to make a larger quilt.

The book also includes a section titled "General Techniques" that I found interesting. While most of it is basic information, I like that it is explained in a concise but thorough manner. I particularly like the section on seams, such as why a scant 1/4 inch seam is important and how to check your accuracy.

All in all, a good book that I would highly recommend.

Now, if I can just finish the quilt that I am working on, this will be my next project.
